TODAY & TOMORROW

Occupancy of the new Long Hospital by the first clinical department — Radiation Oncology — is scheduled to begin later this month, with final completion of the move by the end of January.

Already located on the ground floor of the new building is a portion of the Hospitals and Clinics Material Services Department.

Patient care on the seventh floor of Long Hospital will begin as early as January; Physical Therapy and the Emergency Room also will open then on the first floor. The clinical laboratories are scheduled to occupy additional space on the fifth floor of Long Hospital in April of next year, the Operating Room on the fourth floor in June and Radiology on the third floor by September.

Additional moves to patient floors will continue at two-month intervals during 1982 and it is anticipated that all patient activity will be moved from UC Hospital and consolidated in Long Hospital by the end of 1982 according to Director William Kerr.

The Moffitt Circle was restored to its normal use the first of November, two weeks earlier than expected. A new temporary Emergency entrance is now located in front of Long Hospital and will remain there for approximately one year, when it will return to its original location. Landscaping will then complete the area in front of the Long Hospital building.

NEWS BRIEFS

Mario Obledo, Secretary of Health and Welfare for the State of California, will speak at a special lecture on "The Future of Health Care and Human Services for the Poor in California," on Friday, November 20 in HSW 302 at 7 p.m. It is free and open to the public.

Other notable speakers from the health and mental health fields will make presentations. The lecture is sponsored by the Office of Public Service Programs. Co-sponsors are LACA (Latin American Campus Association) , CHE (Chicanos in Health Education), and the Mission Mental Health Center. For further information call x3206.

The 36th Francis I. Proctor Lecture will be given on Friday, December 4 at 4:30 p.m. in the Golden Gate Ballroom at the Hyatt Regency, S.F. Corneal disease expert Herbert E. Kaufman, professor and chair of the Department of Ophthalmology, Louisiana State University, New Orleans, will present "Refractive Keratoplasty."

Funds for this lectureship were donated by Mrs. Francis I. Proctor. For further information call x1921.

September's revised Personal Data Form (UPAY 544-2SF) is the only employee document accepted by the Payroll Office. The revised form contains a disclosure of information section for disclosure of address to employee organizations. Deans, directors, department chairs, and other administrative officers are reminded that this new section must be completed on all PDF forms prepared or delays will result in processing the appointment. For further information contact Phil Ruttenberg at x1850.

A reminder to all faculty and staff employees who are members of UC's UCRS or PERS retirement plans and who are appointed to work at least 50 percent full-time, that November is open enrollment month.

This is the only month that eligible employees can enroll in one of the two new dental plans — Aetna or Safeguard.

Employees should have received information on the two dental plans at their homes and are asked to review these plans carefully before making a decision.

Remaining open enrollment discussion sessions to help employees decide on which dental plan is best for them as well as to discuss all insurance changes that can be made during November are: Wednesday, November 18, HSW 300, 2 to 3 p.m.; and Monday, November 23, HSW 300, noon to 1 p.m.

For further information contact the Benefits Section, x1843 or see the special display in the Medical Sciences lobby.

There will be an electrical shutdown in the Laundry/Storehouse and Medical Research buildings on Friday, November 20, 6 p.m. to midnight.

In order to complete new construction, all lights, plugs, ventilation, the elevator and all equipment using electrical power will be shut down in the Laundry/Storehouse. There will be no interruption of lights, plugs, and fume hoods in the Medical Research building, but ventilation, vacuum, elevators, and air conditioning will be shut down. Containment area fans will be off for 15 minutes at 6 p.m. and again for 15 minutes at the completion of the shutdown.

In addition, on Wednesday, November 18 from 5 to 7 a.m. there will be an electrical shutdown in Medical Sciences, Increment II. This is the area between the four Medical Sciences elevators and the Health Science Towers, including the Animal Tower and the Medical Sciences library.

For further information contact Bob Piccinini, x4066 or Rudolph Fonti, x1224.

UCSF's first Staff Career Education Day will be held on Friday, January 29 in the Millberry Union Gym from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Supervisors from various departments and divisions will be on hand to explain career and educational opportunities available on campus and employees will have the chance to discuss transfer and promotional opportunities. In addition, several representatives from schools and colleges in the Bay Area will describe various educational and training programs that are available.

Personnel Manager Chick Francis is asking campus supervisors and managers to appoint a representative from each department to be part of the Staff Career Education Day planning committee. All supervisors and managers who have not submitted a representative's name should contact coordinator Sandy Coleman at x2921 or x1645.

The Staff Career Education Day will be sponsored by SEC (Staff Employee Council), the Black Caucus, LACA (Latin American Campus Association), the United Filipino Association and the Affirmative Action Office.

A career interest inventory that matches some 250 activities to 120 possible working resources has been developed by Faricita Wyatt, coordinator of the UCSF Retirees Employement Program.

Called TRIAD (Tracing the Range of Interests and Activities Development), it provides a basis for selection of education goals, career choices and development, retirement activities, and volunteer experiences, according to Wyatt.

Wyatt says the information can be used by the individual as a guide to personal development, by personnel staff and department supervisors in selection and placement, and by career counselors in staff training and development. The system helps people zero in on their unique capabilities and the types of work activities that best utilize these capabilities.

For further information write to Faricita Wyatt, Impact Associates, Inc., 805 Leavenworth, Suite 508, S.F., CA 94109. Impact Associates is a non-profit corporation of educational consultants.

The Indochinese Refugee Screening Program, previously based at the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital, moved to SFGH on November 3. Paul R. De Lay, UCSF clinical associate in Epidemiology and International Health, continues to direct the screening program, which provides general health assessments and follow-up for approximately 350 new refugees each month.

IN MEMORIAM

Jacob C. Geiger, clinical professor emeritus, Epidemiology & Microbiology. He served as Director of Public Health for the City and County of S.F. from 1931 to 1952, and Health Officer for the City of Oakland from 1952 to 1957. Geiger was internationally acclaimed for his contributions to public health. As a member of the Hooper Foundation, he, along with his colleagues, established the criteria which led to the disappearance of botulism in the canning industry. He also worked with the late Karl F. Meyer on the control of plague and was responsible for the termination of cerebro-spinal meningitis in S.F.'s shipping industry. Geiger joined the UC system in 1913 as assistant professor of Hygiene, teaching in S.F. and Berkeley. He became a full professor in 1930, and from 1916 to 1936 held the ranks of surgeon and senior surgeon in the U.S. Public Health Service.

Elizabeth A. Murphy, a pediatrician who helped found the Alameda County Heart Association and the Teen-Age Clinic, Children's Hospital of the East Bay. She graduated from the School of Medicine in 1938 and worked in the anatomy laboratory at the time d-alpha tocopherol (vitamin E) was first isolated.

Robert W. Clarke, associate clinical professor, Medicine. He was a UCSF employee since 1945.
